SAMPLE FORMS

1. In General. These forms, as well as forms from the www.uscourts.gov website, illustrate information that could be useful when filing complaints or other pleadings. The forms are not comprehensive and do not apply to every type of case.
 2. Not Legal Advice. No form provides legal advice. No form can substitute for retaining or consulting a lawyer. If you are not a lawyer and you are suing or being sued, it is best to retain or consult a lawyer if possible.
 3. No Guarantee. Following a form does not guarantee that any pleading is legally or factually correct or sufficient.
 4. Variations Possible. A form may call for more or less information than a particular court or Judge requires. The fact that a form asks for certain information does not mean that every court requires it. If the form does not ask for certain information, a particular court might still require it. Consult the rules and caselaw that govern the court where you are filing the pleading.
 5. Examples Only. The forms do not try to address or cover all the different types of claims or defenses, or how specific facts might affect a particular claim or defense. Some of the forms are multi-use, but some apply only to specific types of cases. Carefully choose the form that fits your case and the type of pleading you want to file. It is your responsibility to change the information the form asks for to fit the facts and circumstances of your specific case.
 6. No Guidance on Timing or Parties. The forms do not give any guidance on when various pleadings, claims, or defenses should be filed, or who should be sued. Some pleadings, claims, or defenses are time restrictive, but neither the forms nor the Clerk's Office can provide this information. There are limits to who can be named as a party in a case and when they can be added. Lawyers and people representing themselves must know the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the caselaw setting out these and other requirements. The current Federal Rules of Civil Procedure are available free of charge at www.uscourts.gov.
 7. Privacy Requirements. FRCP 5.2 addresses the privacy and security concerns over public access to electronic court files. Under this rule, papers filed with the court should not contain anyone's full social-security number or full birth date, the name of a person known to be a minor, or a complete financial-account number. A filing may include only the last four digits of a social-security number and taxpayer identification number, the year of someone's birth, a minor's initials, and/or the last four digits of a financial-account number.

II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

I the plaintiff Paula Crockett was involved in a auto collision that occurred on April 28th 2017 in Oklahoma County. That caused severe injuries that led to me having an emergency gall bladder removal, back surgery with fusion and screws, fractured left foot and my left knee totally replaced. I am also asking for punitive damages for defendants failure to honor the statute of limitations in filing the Government tort claim in a timely manner and failing to file the lawsuit before the deadline.
